Democratic thievery is just now the son-

Yesterday we gave a cendensed statement of the charges made by the New York Times against Mayor Hall and Controller Connolly, representing the Tammany Ring rulng New York city, and the confession of their thievery by these head centres of the party. HIRAM SMITH, head centres of the party. From the Newburg (N. Y) Daily Journal. The Times of yesterday published a fourpage supplement, containing, in both Erg-lish and in German, the copies of vouch-ers taken from the books of the Controller.

Since the Times opened its fearful on-alaught upon the Tammany throves, the World has said but little, but in that has sought to belittle the charges and make it appear that the copose is untimely and tall the gratified recipient might well have uncalled for. The best it could say in defense of the party was that the knavery lambdaded of was committed a year or lambdaded of was committed a year or now talked of was committed a year or now talked of was committed a year or two ago, and that this rascality ought not to be brought up against the thiever, be-cause they are now in office under a new charter. "Why does not your landlord employ a competent and careful engineer, who would keep his machinery in repair?" we again asked, and smilingly added, "You would feel safer if he, did." "Oh, he says he cannot afford it," was the answer. Here, then, was second-hand boilers, boy engineers, machinery out of repair—all conversation that took place there.
